Directions to the 2012 Ohio MotoTrial event

Signs will be posted from the County Rd. 56/Costonia exit on Ohio state route 7. This exit is 7 miles north of Steubenville, OH and 2 miles south of Toronto, OH.

At the stop sign at the end of the exit ramps turn west (left if coming from the south and right if coming from the north). Going east will put you in the Ohio river! 100 yards after you turn west, the road "tees." Turn right (north) and follow County Rd. 56 west 3 miles to the trials site at "Cable's Camp".

If you go further than three miles on CR 56 you will run into State Route 213, about 1/2-mile past the trials site. In fact, some GPS units may instruct you to take SR 213 to where it connects with Co. Rd. 56 as SR 213 also connects to SR 7 both the north and south of the trial site. Be warned; this route is very twisting and hilly and has a low speed limit so it is probably best to avoid this route if your GPS unit suggests it...unless you prefer a "scenic" driving challenge.

The closest town to the trials site is Toronto. One exit north (2 miles) on St. Rt. 7, you'll get off on Franklin St. where there is a grocery store, drug store, gas station and (into town a way) a NAPA auto parts store. The closest "big city" is Steubenville...to the south on Rt 7.

Area Lodging—Make reservations ASAP; rooms may become scarce due to the influx of gas well workers.
